

Rhode Island Center for the Book

At Rhode Island Council for the Humanities

ANNOUNCING

THE 2018 KIDS READING ACROSS RHODE ISLAND BOOK

THE FIRST RULE OF PUNK by Celia C. Pérez

COME AND KICK OFF

!LAS BIBLIOTECAS™ ★ TIENEN RITMO! ★

Saturday, May 19 | 2-4 p.m.
RI State House

Honorary Chair: Governor Gina M. Raimondo
Partner: Rhode Island Latino Arts

- Meet author Celia Pérez
- Get a free, signed copy of The First Rule of Punk (one per family)

- Participate in activities and games presented by RI libraries and community organizations
- Preview The First Rule of Punk: A play by Jacqueline M. Walsh School For The Performing Arts students in partnership with The Gamm Theatre

Free parking available in state lots
Doors open at 2 p.m.

#RIReads

Para más información sobre el Mes del Libro y KRARI, póngase en contacto con Rhode Island Latino Arts (marta@rilatinoarts.org)

Latino Books Month is coordinated each May by Rhode Island Latino Arts and The First Rule of Punk is this year's selection. For information about Latino Books Month, contact Marta V. Matínez at marta@rilatinoarts.org.

About Kids About Reading Across Rhode Island

Kids Reading Across Rhode Island is a partnership between the RI Office of Library and Information Services and the RI Center for the Book at the RI Council for the Humanities. KRARI provides continuity between school and summer reading through programming that connects students with local libraries. The 2018 theme for this annual statewide summer reading program is "Libraries Rock - La Bibliotecas Tienen Ritmo." All summer, RI public libraries will offer free programs inspired by The First Rule of Punk. Learn more at: ribook.org/krari.

Major support from TD Bank, Institute of Museum and Library Services, Andrade-Faxon Charities for Children, and Ocean State Charities

